LICENCES TO DRILL WELLS

- (b) the holder tests the yield of every well bored or drilled and delivers a statement in Form 4 to the owner.

CONSTRUCTION

4.(1) Where a well is bored or drilled, the driller shall install a well casing

- (a) of new material; and
- (b) of sufficient length and if necessary surrounded by a sufficient seal of cement or other suitable material, to prevent surface or near-surface contaminating water from reaching lower uncontaminated ground water.

(2) When a well is completed, the driller shall cover and seal the upper open end of the casing in a manner sufficient to prevent any contamination of the well until a pump is installed.

5.(1) Where a well is bored or drilled through the bottom of a dug well, the owner shall fill the dug portion of the well with clean clay soil to the surface of the ground, or where there is a concrete well pit, to the bottom of the concrete well pit.

7. Where a well vent is installed, the vent shall be by means of a pipe extending at least twelve inches above ground level and the open end shall be shielded and screened sufficiently to prevent the entry into the vent pipe of rainwater, spilled water or foreign matter.

8.(1) When a pump is installed, the top of the well casing shall be sealed by a well-cap commercially manufactured for the purpose.

(2) When a connection to a well casing is made below the ground surface, the connection shall be made water-tight by means of a well seal commercially manufactured for the purpose.

PLUGGING AND ABANDONING

10.(1) When a well is withdrawn from use but not abandoned, the owner shall cap the well by a device sufficient to prevent the entry of impurities.

(2) Where a well is abandoned and its continued existence may result in the contamination of the aquifer, the owner shall fill and seal the well in a manner sufficient to prevent the vertical movement of water.

RETURNS

11. A return under subsection 7 of section 29 of the Act shall be in Form 5.

THE HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ACT

O. Reg. 285/58.

Demerit Point System.

New.

Made—13th November, 1958.

Filed—18th November, 1958.

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER THE HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ACT

INTERPRETATION

1. In these regulations, "driver's licence" means an operator's licence or a chauffeur's licence issued pursuant to the Act.

RECORDING OF DEMERIT POINTS

2.—(1) When any person is convicted of an offence under a provision of an Act, regulation or municipal by-law set out in Column 1 of the Table, the Registrar shall record in respect of the person the number of demerit points set opposite thereto in Column 2.

(2) The short descriptions in Column 3 of the Table indicate for convenience of reference only the general nature of offences under the provisions in Column 1 and shall not be construed to limit the offences for which demerit points are imposed.

3. If a person enters an appeal against a conviction, no demerit points shall be recorded in respect of the conviction unless the conviction is sustained on appeal and, where points have been recorded in respect of the conviction before the appeal is entered, such points and any suspension imposed in consequence thereof shall be removed until the appeal is disposed of.

4. If a person is convicted of two or more offences arising out of the same circumstances, only demerit points for the conviction for which the greatest number of points is imposed shall be recorded and, if the greatest number of points is equal for two or more convictions, points shall be recorded for one conviction only.

5. Where any person forfeits bail given upon a charge of an offence under a provision set out in Column 1 of the Table, the Registrar shall record the forfeiture as a conviction and shall record the demerit points imposed for the conviction in the same manner as if such person were convicted of the offence.

6. Where a resident of Ontario is convicted or forfeits bail in another province of Canada or in one of the United States of America for an offence which, in the opinion of the Registrar, is in substance and effect equivalent to an offence for which points would be recorded upon conviction in Ontario, the Registrar may record the demerit points for the conviction in the same manner as if the conviction had been made or the bail forfeited in Ontario for the equivalent offence.

REDUCTION OF POINTS

7. When two years have elapsed after the entry of demerit points on the operating record of a person, the Registrar shall strike such points from the record.

8. Upon the expiration of a period of suspension for three months or more imposed under these regulations or by an order of the court or by the Minister under section 25 of the Act, the Registrar shall strike all accumulated demerit points from the record of the holder of the licence.

NOTICE OF POINTS

9.—(1) When a total of more than six but less than nine demerit points have accumulated in the record of any person, the Registrar shall cause a notice to be sent to the person informing him of the number of points accumulated.

(2) A notice under subregulation 1 shall be deemed to be sent if it is mailed to the last address of the person appearing on the records of the Department.

SUSPENSION OF LICENCES

10. When a total of nine or more but less than twelve demerit points have accumulated in the record of a person, the Registrar may require him to attend before an official of the Department for an interview and to furnish such information, evidence or material as may be required to show cause why his licence should not be suspended.

11.—(1) Where a person fails to comply with a requirement under regulation 10, the Minister may, upon ten days notice by registered mail, suspend the driver's licence of such person until the requirement is complied with.

(2) A notice under subregulation 1 shall be deemed to be given if it is sent by registered mail to the last address of the person appearing on the records of the Department.

12. Where the Minister is of the opinion that a person has failed to show cause under regulation 10 why his licence should not be suspended, the Minister may suspend the licence for such period as he may deem advisable.

13.—(1) Subject to subregulation 2, when twelve or more demerit points have accumulated in the record of a person, the Registrar shall suspend the driver's licence of such person for a period of three months.

(2) The period of suspension in subregulation 1 shall be six months where the accumulation of twelve or more demerit points occurs within a period of one year from the time a previous suspension under this regulation has expired.

14. Where a licence is suspended under these regulations, the period of suspension shall be concurrent with the unexpired portion of any suspension under any other authority.

15. Where a person is convicted of operating a motor vehicle while his driver's licence is suspended under these regulations, the licence shall be suspended for an additional period of six months.
